“Choosing a professional that complements your executive and corporate development can be a time-consuming and often expensive task,” says Dan Hoeyer, founder of Business Educators. “As a remedy to this problem, I have given companies a dedicated online resource that offers first-class educators from the most reputable schools in the U.S. With Business Educators, it’s never been easier or more cost-effective for them to realize their education vision.”

About Business Educators

Business Educators is the world's premier resource that specializes in connecting organizations and institutions directly with leaders in executive education, ensuring cost-effective solutions of superior quality. Business Educators acts as an agent for these faculty members and business experts, who are leading speakers and educators.

We are a truly global company as we serve clients in all regions of the world. We offer 24/7 customer service and are therefore never closed for business.

Our innovative services are designed for corporations, training companies, and business schools which seek educators for a multitude of services such as consulting, executive training, and keynotes on a high professional and academic level.

Business Educators was founded by Dan Hoeyer, a successful business developer and entrepreneur as well as a noted figure in the executive education realm. He is co-founder and Chairman of the Board of AVT Business School (www.avt.dk), a privately owned American executive MBA business school located in Copenhagen, Denmark and one of the largest CBA/MBA institutions in that nation.

When Mr. Hoeyer established Business Educators, he envisioned making a paradigm shift with regard to how people are finding and utilizing executive education resources. He sought to serve the interests of companies and business schools by providing broader and more direct access to quality educators.

Today, Business Educators is the the world's premier online resource that connects professionals with top business educators across a variety of subject areas. We have combined deep domain expertise with the efficiency of online technology to create an affordable, end-to-end business education solution. Whether you are planning an important industry event or revamping your staff training curriculum, Business Educators makes it easy to find the resources you need to realize your corporate education goals.

Why Business Educators?

Business Educators delivers cost-effective solutions of unsurpassed quality for institutions' needs regarding training, education, and consulting. We accomplish this by offering a network of leading educators who are committed to adding value to our clients' operations. Below are the key reasons why you should be working with Business Educators for your entire executive and corporate development needs.

Superior Quality
 + Cost-effective Solutions
 + Efficient Online Technology
 = Trusted Educator Specialist Partner

Leading Educators Produce Superior Quality Solutions

Our network features hundreds of educators, most of whom are associated with the top business schools in the U.S. These educators are leading experts in their respective fields and their expertise covers a broad range of industries. They are selected on an individual basis based on their record of outstanding achievement in their specific areas of discipline. Before joining the network, each educator must submit to an intensive evaluation process. Therefore, when selecting an educator through our resource, clients are assured they are connecting with an educator at the highest level of expertise and professionalism, leading to superior quality solutions.

Connecting Directly Saves Clients Valuable Time and Money

Our system saves you considerable time and money by connecting you directly to the educator. Our service is provided free of charge, and clients will be assessed the exact same fee as if they were dealing with the professors individually, but without the hassle and expense of doing extensive legwork. Furthermore, clients have the option for complimentary connections to any of our leading educators for an exploratory dialogue or to discuss an engagement prior to finalizing a selection. Therefore they can learn about what specific ideas and vision an educator has for their proposed engagement, resulting in a very high satisfaction and repeat business rate with clients.

Efficient Online Technology Simplifies and Expedites the Selection Process

Business Educators is the only resource of its kind that facilitates a direct connection between organizations and their chosen educator(s) throughout the entire learning process. By utilizing an efficient online platform, Business Educators connects you directly to leading educators across a myriad of industries. We have already compiled all the pertinent information regarding our educators in order to expedite and simplify the process of securing the most appropriate educator based on your requirements. Clients spend no time with concerns of availability, affordability, or accessibility as we have done the difficult work for them. This enables clients to spend precious time focusing on other important issues, and creates a seamless process for identifying an educator that is best equipped to deliver the perfect solution to the clients. In addition, some educators have been available through speaker's bureaus or talent agencies. Those organizations have selected educators based on notoriety more than the ability to deliver effective solutions or impacting presentations, which has led to a demand in the marketplace for a more efficient and accurate system. Business Educators is the answer to that calling.

A Trusted Educator Specialist Partner is the Only Resource Necessary

The ability to connect with leading educators using our efficient online platform enables clients to reduce costs and energy associated with determining an optimum match for an engagement. We enable our clients to receive cost-effective high quality solutions for all events, regardless of the educator selected. Therefore, Business Educators has become known as a "Trusted Educator Specialist Partner" in the education, training, and consulting marketplaces. Business Educators is the authority on leading educators, making us the only resource necessary for clients scheduling their next engagement.
